Excerpt from First Annual Report: Of the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad Company The following Statement of the affairs of this Company, is presented to the Stockholders, as required by the 13th section of the charter. The attention of the Board of Directors has been called, during the past year of their official service, mainly to the consideration of routes; - the increase of the capital stock of the Company; - and the immediate construction of a portion of the road. Routes. The charter confers the power, to construct a railroad, from any eligible point on the Ohio river, opposite Parkersburg, (Va.) or from Harmar, in Washington county, by way of Athens and Chillicothe, to some point on the Little Miami railroad, between Plainville, in the county of Hamilton, and the mouth of O Ban-non in the county of Clermont. Subsequent amendments, approved by the Stockholders, give the right of an independent entrance into the city of Cincinnati, and power to construct their road to any point, so as to connect with any Railroad, or other improvement, constructed...
