Excerpt from An Introductory Lecture: Delivered at the Opening of the Thirty-First Session of the Medical College of Ohio; November 4th, 1850 Prof. Bell, Dear Sir: In accordance with the desire of the Students of the Medical College of Ohio, we, the undersigned, were appointed a Committee, to solicit a copy of your very excellent Introductory, for publication. A compliance with the above request, will meet the approbation of the entire Class. Gentlemen: I have been honored with your letter of the 9th inst., in which you ask, on the part of the class, for a copy of my Introductory lecture, with a view to its publication. Gratified as I am by this early mark of confidence in my opinions on the relative position, attributes and range of Medicine, and on the duties of those who profess to teach it, I cheerfully comply with the wish of the entire class, so kindly conveyed by you, and I place the manuscript of my lecture at your disposal. Reviews

This is actually the very best book i actually have read till now. This is for all those who statte that there was not a worth studying. Its been written in an remarkably straightforward way which is merely following i finished reading this publication by which in fact altered me, modify the way i believe.

-- Mr. Jeramy Leuschke IV

The ideal ebook i possibly go through. It generally does not cost an excessive amount of. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
