The holidays are an exciting time for children in the classroom and the home. The rich history and fun celebrations of holidays make students excited both for parties and learning. The Writing Prompts for Holidays series is a collection of imaginative situations and questions related to 20 major holidays, including Christmas, Thanksgiving, Halloween, and more. Third Grade Writing Prompts for Holidays is a workbook that will help third grade students to start developing their creative writing skills. Examples from the book: 4. While most people don't get a full-time job until after high school or college, many teenagers get part-time jobs to learn more about the working world. What do you think your first part-time job will be, what might you learn from it, and why? 48. What would your Thanksgiving dinner be like if all of your family members had to dress up in costumes? What costumes would your family members choose and why? 51. In some families, Christmas gifts are hidden throughout the house like a game of Hide and Seek. Imagine if your family tried this tradition out....
