Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Letters of Richard Radcliffe and John James of Queen s College, Oxford, 1755-83: With Additions, Notes, and Appendices The following correspondence forms part of a large number of family letters which have gradually come into my hands during the last two years. Those have been selected for publication which bear in any degree on University life at the time. As the Provost of Queen s has kindly undertaken to write a Prefatory Note, I will content myself with giving a short account of the four men whose correspondence is now published. Both in this Preface and in the Index I shall refer to John James, senior, as Dr. James, and to his son John as James. The one or two notes printed in italics are by James himself. Richard Radcliffe, the writer of the first sixteen of the letters, was the son of Francis Radcliffe of Ulock, and Anne, daughter of Mr. Jackson of Torpenhow, Cumberland. He was born in 1727, and was educated at St. Bees (see p. 34). On October 7, 1743, he...

Reviews

Certainly, this is the finest job by any publisher. I was able to comprehend almost everything out of this published e-book. You won't truly feel monotony at any moment of the time (that's what catalogues are for concerning should you question me).
