W. Ewart Gladstone, M. P: Examined; The Anti-Catholic Charges Answered The following paper is the embodiment of two lectures, delivered after Sundays Vespers in the church of the Fathers of Charity, on the 11th and 18th October. It seems, therefore, pre-eminently a work of charity, at the present moment, to remove misconception and to communicate correct information to the public at large, upon what has become the salient topic of the day. The writer aspires to no higher privilege than to be, in his own sphere, the humble mouthpiece of the doctrine and discipline of the Holy, Ancient, Roman Church, as well as to parry the attacks which, either from ignorance or malevolence, are constantly aimed against the impregnable citadel of Eternal Truth. Clarence Gardens, Regent s Park. Feast of St. Peter of Alcantara, October 19, 1874. Ritualism. The Contemporary Review for this month of October, with truth, it may be said, has disturbed the public mind from its propriety. An article, on the question of the day, of surpassing...
