Edible French: Tasty Expressions and Cultural Bites (Hardback)

By Clotilde Dusoulier

Penguin Putnam Inc, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Melina Josserand (illustrator). Bilingual. 180 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The idiosyncrasies of language can tell us a lot about a culture. In this delightful book, Clotilde Dusoulier, creator of the award-winning food blog Chocolate Zucchini, delves into the history and meaning of fifty of the French language's most popular food-related expressions. Accompanied by beautiful watercolor illustrations by artist Melina Josserand, Edible French explores whimsical turns of phrase such as: Tomber dans les pommes (falling into the apples) = fainting Se faire rouler dans la farine (being rolled in flour) = being fooled Avoir un cœur d'artichaut (having the heart of an artichoke) = falling in love easily A treat of a read for Francophiles and food lovers alike, Edible French is the tastiest way to explore French culture one that will leave you in high spirits or, as the French say, vous donnera la peche (give you the peach).

This is basically the finest publication I actually have gone through till now. We have read and I also am confident that I am going to likely to read through again once more in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
