Children love to pretend to go places. Get ready to ride with John and Kaycee as they travel in a bus full of friends to a surprise party, experiencing the unexpected every step of the way! Their imagination-fueled journey takes them on a tour of seven towns, each named after a different day of the week. On each page, you'll find a new adventure full of tongue-tripping word play and whimsical images. You won't know until the bus reaches the end of the line whether James' birthday party is indeed a surprise for him as well as his friends! A great choice to read aloud to small children through kindergarten age. Don't be surprised to find this book among the favorites children will want to read with you over and over. Ages 3-8 All aboard for nonstop smiles and giggles! The illustrator and author have collaborated to produce an atmosphere of pure fun.
