From this time until February, 1882, his duties were those of naval officers of his rank in time of peace. He served on the U.S. S.Portsmouth in 1868; on the Richmond from 1869 to 1871; in command of the Saugus in 1875 and 1876; as Executive of the Dictator in 1876; on the Colorado in 1877; as Executive of the Monongahela in 1878 and 1879; as Executive of the Independence, 1879 to 1882. In intervals between his service on these vessels he was assigned to various shore duties at League Island, at the Hydrographic office and elsewhere. While Lieutenant-Commander he wrote a savage letter to an old clerk in the Navy Department, for which he was tried by Court Martial, and punished by suspension, April 22, 1876, for one year and to retain his then number on the list of Lieutenant-Commanders. The offence was a mere outbreak...
