Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Treatise on the Theory of Algebraical Equations The commencement of the publication of a Treatise on the Theory of Algebraical Expressions, of which the first number appeared in 1831, under the direction of the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, having been accidentally interrupted, I was directed by the same Society to compose the present Treatise, keeping in sight the views of the author of the Algebraical Expressions, at the same time keeping pace with the advancement made, since the former date, on this subject. The main view of the author of the work quoted, I learned, was to conduct his subject so as insensibly to lead the learner from pure algebraical theories to a knowledge of the principles on which the more advanced branches of analysis depend. To this advice from an excellent analyst I have adhered as well as I was able; but, in consideration of the recent progress of the Theory of Equations, I felt it necessary to alter the plan, assuming however the propositions proved in the other work,...
