

Budapest (Paperback)

By Michael Jacobs

GRANTA BOOKS, United Kingdom, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 194 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Once the elegant second city of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, Budapest, the Queen of the Danube , is now being rediscovered as one of the liveliest and most attractive destinations in Europe. Equipped with Michael Jacob s guide, you will be able to get the most out of this fascinating city, whether you re on a weekend break or a longer visit. It will help you discover: the distinct characters of the city s two halves - Buda, set on gently rolling hills, and across the river energetic, modern Pest; the best of its almost 100 thermal springs and 12 medicinal baths; Margaret Island, a leafy park in the centre of the Danube where you can cycle or play tennis; the city of artists, architects and writers; and, its cafes and restaurants, many of them redolent of the city s days of imperial splendour. The book takes the visitor on six walks arranged by district, featuring all the major sites and a personal selection of less well known, often neglected ones.
