To the Board of Trustees of the Boston Psychopathic Hospital. In accordance with the provision of the statutes I submit for your consideration the report for the statistical year ending September 30, 1924, and for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1924. In recent annual reports an outline has been given of the special organization of the hospital, of the nature of the work carried out in the various departments, of the co-ordination of these departments for the efficient study and treatment of patients and so that research into the fundamental problems of mental disorders should be continuously carried on. During the past year a constant effort has been made to maintain the efficiency of this organization, and the work in the various departments has progressed in a satisfactory way. In the appended reports from the various departments will be found a more detailed statement of the problems which have been studied and of the contributions of the staff to the solution of these problems. The laboratories continue to be occupied with certain definite detailed problems, which form part of a wide program of research. Continuity in this work is very desirable and it is fortunate that there has been no change in the chiefs of the various departments. Limitation of funds has prevented research from being...
