On one house call Brian suffers from guilt while he dismantles an old man's library as the man sits nearby and watches him. Back in the shop, he gets a phone call from an abrupt man who's in a hurry to find a book called, Sexual Astrology. On another call, a beautiful Character Actress involves him in her family drama. Later he meets a charming widow whose husband figures in, Bipolar's what they call it nowadays. In Chad and Billy Climb to Heaven, he climbs up a broken stepladder into an attic of broken dreams. In Bags for the Big Bang, a library representing the big bang theory of the universe arrives at the shop in plastic trash bags. In the final story, he's Trapped in a Bookshop at night by a maniac who's raiding the Free Books bin outside. And all the while Brian dreams of re-meeting the beautiful poetry lady who asked him to find a book for her. A FASCINATING LOOK BACKSTAGE IN THE WORLD OF OLD BOOKS.
