C. : National Aeronautics and Space Administration : Dept. of Defense ; Springfield, Va. : National Technical Information Service, distributor, 1996 OCLC Number: ocm39668328 Excerpt: . . . The data in Tables 1 and 2 were used to construct Table 3 which shows, for each component, the percentage of survey respondents who indicated they read that component at some stage in the use sequence. The report components are listed in Table 3 in descending frequency of use. For the internal respondents, the components read by the highest percentage of readers were the results and discussion and the conclusions Other components read by more than 80 of the internal respondents were the introduction, description of the research procedure, and the title page. For the external respondents, the components read by the highest percentage of readers were the conclusions and the summary. Other components read by more than 80 of the external respondents were the title page and the abstract. Components read by 80 of both groups were the conclusions (94. 7), results and discussion (87. 6), introduction (83. 1), title page (82. 5), and the summary (82. 2). Conversely, certain components were read by very few respondents in either survey group. The foreword and preface had very low usage rates: internal respondents 15. 9 15. 2 and external respondents 38. 9 32. 9 . (With the exception of NASA Special Publications, NASA technical reports generally do not include a foreword or preface.) Other components read by less than half of both groups include preface (24. 1), foreword (27. 4), glossary of terms (29. 1), and...
